

Dear Linda

First, I want to thank you for being a speaker at our NaLA conference! You truly were such a hit. I had so many people coming up to me to say such wonderful things about having you speak at our conference.

Your message of resiliency in the face of change was a great addition to our other more technical speakers.

Thanks for all you did to help make our conference a success.

Sincerely,

Lynn Martin

Lynn Martin

Conference Director